

We have been exploring different ways of decorating biscuits.

We have used butter cream, melted milk and white chocolate, water icing of various colours and a variety of edible decorations.

We are now in the process of designing our own biscuit creations and will share these with you after half term. Just the pictures and recipes though - our technology doesn't stretch to virtual tasting!